Grants from Fourchon Oilman's Association

Fourchon Oilman's Association is committed to supporting the local community by providing grants for the development of education and resources to enhance our local region. Qualified schools and organizations in Lafourche and Terrebonne parishes are encouraged to apply. Grants are awarded through a competitive process in a variety of subject areas. In 2013 a total of $108,000.00 was awarded to local educational institutions and charitable organizations. Detailed qualifications and instructions are listed below along with the application form.

If you are interested in applying for a grant from the Fourchon Oilman's Association, the following criteria must be met:

- Provide a copy of your IRS determination letter indicating 501(c)(3) and 509(a) tax exempt status
- Provide a copy of your most recent annual financial statement
- Provide a list of your Board of Directors and their principal affiliations
- Agency affiliation with federated funds or public agencies
- Donations will not be made to individuals for any purpose
- Applications will be accepted until November 1
- Funds will be distributed by December 31

About The Fourchon Oilman's Association

The Fourchon Oilman's Association, Inc (FOA) was established by a group of oil and gas industry professionals to utilize the resources of their respective industries in conjunction with Port Fourchon to foster goodwill throughout our surrounding communities. To better summarize our overall focus, we have developed a Mission Statement and have been committed to abide by its meaning since its acceptance.

The Fourchon Oilman's Association is an association of businesses dedicated to helping local educational and charitable organizations while promoting the oil and gas industry.

Although our organization is relatively new, our board members have spent many combined years in the oil and gas industry. Each is committed to bestowing that same dedication and service to ensure the purpose and success of this organization for years to come.
