Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (see the instructions for Part III)

Check if the organization used Schedule O to respond to any question in this Part III

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

Our mission is to rescue children and young adults from human trafficking and modern day slavery in sex for hire and exploitation in pornography, as well as other dangerous and abusive environments, in association with local law enforcement and governing authorities We establish safe houses to provide maximum safety for endangered children in an environment for healing, through crisis counseling, trauma therapy and education We offer specialized care for victims of ritual, clergy, incest, mental, physical and sexual abuses, along with comfort and education for their families We offer these services for free We promote awareness in the community on the escalating crimes of child pornography and exploitation, which cause human suffering within our communities and our nation We currently offer these services for free We strive to be the voice for children who suffer alone with little or no hope

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28

In 2013 we continued to help children and families affected by human trafficking and child abuse of various kinds approximately 396 individuals, children and adults, promoted awareness in speaking engagements and interviews locally in radio, tv, public speaking engagements and fundraisers to thousands(?) Our renovation of our first safehouse was completed for operation at its present size as we move forward on an addition to double our capacity in beds, this year and next through private grants for this purpose and fundraising efforts We are becoming a model for current and future efforts of providing safety, protection, trauma recovery, crisis counseling and healing to children and their families when possible Our mission is to rescue children and young adults from human trafficking and modern day slavery in sex for hire and exploitation in pornography, as well as other dangerous and abusive environments, in association with local law enforcement and governing authorities We establish safe houses to provide maximum safety for endangered children in an environment for healing, through crisis counseling, trauma therapy and education We offer specialized care for victims of ritual, clergy, incest, mental, physical and sexual abuses, along with comfort and education for their families We do these services for free We promote awareness in the community on the escalating crimes of child pornography and exploitation, which cause human suffering within our communities and our nation We currently do this for free as well We strive to be the voice for children who suffer alone with little or no hope
