Applicants will be awarded assistance based on overall need and compliance with Compassion's exempt purpose and Board approval. Applicants are not granted assistance based on relationships between the applicant and Compassion's Board members or employees.

Compassion does not discriminate applicants based upon race, color, sex, national origin, age, geographic territory, or disability. However, Compassion reserves the right to select applicant's for awards based on alignment between the applicant, the applicant's stated need(s) and Compassion's exempt purpose including the applicant's willingness to accept Spiritual and Financial Counseling.

With Board approval, Compassion may provide short-term assistance to ensure that applicants have the basic necessities such as food, clothing, housing, transportation, and medical assistance. The preferred method of providing assistance will be to pay the applicant's needs directly to the business provider. Assistance may also be provided in the form of cash grants or vouchers for goods or services. The type of aid that is appropriate depends on the individual's specific needs and available resources.
