Awake and Alive, Inc considers the office equipment purchased in 2013 (Apple computer, printer, and related software and equipment) for $2,642 to be of the organization for future years despite the fact that it was an expense in 2013. Therefore, Awake and Alive, Inc thought it prudent to list the office equipment purchased in 2013 to be listed as a net asset

Part III Line #28

Grant to Bright Future Ethiopia Grant amount $42,457

Awake and Alive, Inc provided Bright Future Ethiopia grant funding in the amount of $42,457 in 2013. Bright Future Ethiopia is an Ethiopian nonprofit organization (Non-governmental organization) that facilitates Bright Future Academy, a full-service school currently serving 68 children ages 4-7 in the Kechene slum of Addis Ababa. The Academy provides two teachers that teach the children lessons required for children in kindergarten in Ethiopia. The students also receive 2 meals per day, medical attention, and their mothers or guardians receive basic health and sanitation education. Bright Future Ethiopia is not controlled by Awake and Alive, Inc other than through a grant agreement required by Awake and Alive, Inc which sets forth reporting requirements for use of funds and related requirements. The students' ages range from 4-7 years old and are nearly all orphan or half-orphan children (one parent deceased). The few students with both parents living have one disabled parent who is unable to work. In 2013 the Academy was housed in a walled compound that contained a three room building for classrooms and four other buildings for a cafeteria, office, and kitchen. Finally, a small courtyard with a playground for the students facilitates the physical activity needed for the students. The Academy purchases clean water for drinking, washing and general sanitation. The students focus on learning fundamentals of education during kindergarten such as colors, shapes, the Amharic alphabet, basic English, and sanitation. The students will spend three years at the kindergarten level in Ethiopia and the Academy will welcome 34 more children in the fall of 2014 to complete the kindergarten 1-3 years in the current compound.

Part III Line #29

Awake and Alive, Inc facilitated a trip to Addis Ababa, Ethiopia in June of 2013 for 13 Americans for approximately 10 days. The participants volunteered their time to teach English lessons at Bright Future Academy (See Line #28 Answer). The trip was termed "Project Presence" and was facilitated by the CEO and a Board Member of Awake and Alive, Inc. The team was made up of Americans from all over the United States from Indiana to Florida to Washington state. Each team member was paired with a number of Bright Future Academy students during the day to teach a craft or basic English lesson. The team members were able to walk the children home from the Academy to visit their homes and meet their families. The team members also participated in preparing the Academy facilities for the 34 additional students that would enter the Academy in fall 2013. The Academy was in need of an additional classroom and the team assisted with cleaning, plastering, and painting a new classroom for the 2013-2014 school year. The 68 students benefited from receiving English lessons and learning skills by craft work provided. In addition, the students and staff benefited by preparing an additional classroom. In addition, the students and staff of Bright Future Academy benefited from the encouragement and support from the Project Presence team.

Part III Line #30

In the fall of 2013 Awake and Alive, Inc began researching and developing a program called the Adult Empowerment Program. The Adult Empowerment Program will provide basic education to the mothers of the students enrolled in Bright Future Academy (see Line #28 Answer). The 13 mothers initially participating began receiving basic literacy lessons and math lessons at the Academy in the fall of 2013. The lessons are taught by a certified Ethiopian teacher after normal school hours in the Academy classrooms. The mothers will eventually learn a skill or trade. They will also have the opportunity to develop a business plan (for those interested and capable of facilitating their own business). The mothers will also learn basic savings principles. The goal of the Adult Empowerment Program is to provide the mothers of the students with healthier and more lucrative jobs to help ensure that the students remain in the Academy. Many of the mothers enrolled in the Adult Empowerment Program were performing very labor intensive jobs that were physically dangerous (carrying sticks from the countryside to the city) and very low paying (many less than or not much more than $2/day). The literacy, skills, and business training will provide the skills the mothers need to provide a more secure and healthy future for their children. The initial group of participating mothers numbers 13, but Awake and Alive, Inc anticipates growth over time as the program succeeds.
