Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box D, E, or F below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part II Long-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held more than one year are long term. For short-term transactions, see page 1.

Note. You may aggregate all long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 8a, you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box D, E, or F below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your long-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 2, for each applicable box. If you have more long-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

- ☒ (D) Long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS (see Note above)
☐ (E) Long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was not reported to the IRS
☐ (F) Long-term transactions not reported to you on Form 1099-B

HOLDINGS

This section reflects positions purchased/sold on a trade date basis, and will include positions purchased and omit positions sold in the current month. "Market Value" and "Unrealized Gain/(Loss)" are representative values as of the last business day of the statement period indicated, may not reflect the value that could be obtained in the market. See "Pricing of Securities" in the Expanded Disclosures. Fixed Income securities are sorted by maturity or pre-refunding date, and alphabetically within date. Estimated annual income and estimated yield for certain securities may include return of principal or capital gains which could overstate such estimates. Actual income or yield may be lower or higher than the estimates. Estimated yield reflects only the income generated by an investment and, it does not reflect changes in its price, which may fluctuate. Structured products appear in various statement product categories and are identified as "Structured Products" in the Security Description column. Estimated accrued interest, estimated annual income and estimated yield for structured products with a contingent income feature (such as Range Accrual Notes or Contingent Income Notes) assume specified accrual conditions are met during the relevant observation period and payment in full of all contingent interest. If you hold structured products, see "Special Considerations Regarding Structured Products" in the Disclosures. New Treasury regulations require that we report on Form 1099-B after the close of the tax year your adjusted cost basis and classify the gain or loss as either long-term or short-term on the sale of covered securities acquired on or after January 1, 2011. These regulations also require that we make basis adjustments on covered securities due to wash sales, certain corporate actions and transfers by gift or inheritance, which will be reflected on your Form 1099-B. Cost basis is reflected on monthly statements for informational purposes only and should not be used in the preparation of your income tax returns. Refer to the Expanded Disclosures for additional information.
