FORM 990, SCHEDULE J, PART II - EXECUTIVE PERFORMANCE AWARDS PROGRAM	The Providence Executive Incentive Program provides a lump sum award annually as a percent of the executive's base pay. Percent opportunities are aligned with our total compensation philosophy as outlined in Part VI, Section B, Line 15 (Process for determining compensation of top management, officers & key employees). The performance award is based on the level of accomplishment of annual system objectives and personal objectives. In 2013, 50 percent of the participant awards were based on pre-determined organizational goals consistent with Providence's five strategic priorities of mission driven, financially responsible, people centered, service oriented and EPIC watchlist. In 2013 the percent allocation for each of these strategic priorities was: Mission driven 5%, Financially responsible 15%, People centered 10%, Service oriented 10%, EPIC Watchlist 10%. To ensure affordability of the program, the organization (system, region or entity) must meet a threshold of 50 percent of budgeted net operating income.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6	Providence Health & Services - WA dba Sacred Heart Medical Center is the sole Corporate Member
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a	The powers of the Corporate Member include the provision to appoint the number of Directors, appoint the Board of Directors and to remove such Directors at any time with or without cause
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b	The Corporate Member is able to 1) Adopt or change the mission, philosophy, values or fundamental policies 2) Amend or repeal the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws 3) Approve a dissolution and/or liquidation 4) Approve a consolidation or merger 5) Approve any annual or long-term strategic plan and any significant deviation therefrom
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is prepared internally by experienced staff and reviewed by the Internal Director of Taxes and external tax advisors The Chief Development Officer will review the Form 990 in detail Once approved, an electronic copy of the Form 990 is emailed to the Board prior to filing with the IRS
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Providence Health & Services maintains a conflict of interest policy that applies to board members and management of all Providence-related organizations The purpose of the policy is to guide and direct those serving the Providence Health & Services' corporations and other legal entities so they can (1) fulfill their fiduciary responsibilities and exercise stewardship in ways that promote and protect the best interests of Providence and, (2) avoid situations that create a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, between the interests of an individual associated with Providence and Providence On an annual basis, each board member and management level employee must complete and submit an updated conflict of interest statement Conflict of interest disclosures are reviewed by the System Integrity Department working in conjunction with the Department of Legal Affairs If it is determined that an actual conflict exists, appropriate follow-up action is taken with the individual to rectify the conflict
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	It is Providence's intention to make financial information accessible and transparent Although the filing of Form 990 provides insight into how Providence achieves its Mission, delivers its programs and stewards its finances, deciphering the information directly from Form 990 can be challenging The following paragraphs provide further information about the process we use to determine compensation for top management, officers and key employees Providence has a single fiduciary Board, with responsibility for financial oversight associated with fulfillment of the Providence Mission, developing system policies, protecting the assets entrusted to the organization and overseeing the strategic and operational affairs of Providence's legal entities Providence also maintains a network of community ministry boards with responsibility for quality of care oversight, community relations, advocacy and community needs assessments Providence has a consistent compensation philosophy for all of its employees, including our senior executives Salaries for senior executives are determined by the Providence Board's Human Resources Committee and approved by the Board of Directors, none of whom is a Providence employee The Board retains an independent consultant each year to review salaries of those in the most significant leadership roles in the organization Part of the consultant's role is to review an extensive array of compensation surveys of large, not-for-profit health care systems in the United States Providence is one of the larger health systems in the country, and as such, the Board benchmarks executive compensation against other large, not-for-profit health systems whose revenues are similar to that of Providence Base salaries for Providence executives are set at the median level of the market, as identified by the independent consultant and reviewed with the Human Resources Committee Performance incentives allow executives to earn additional compensation if they achieve specific organizational and individual goals for furthering Providence operating principles - advancing the Providence Mission and core values, meeting benchmarks for charity care, achieving quality targets, delivering top-rated customer satisfaction, meeting employee satisfaction goals and reaching financial performance objectives The Board of Directors conducts a thorough process to ensure performance incentives are aligned with appropriate practices for not-for-profit health care systems The Board's process for executive compensation fully complies with IRS standards and mirrors the best practices recommended in the "Report to Congress and the Nonprofit Sector on Governance, Transparency, and Accountability" submitted to the Senate Finance Committee by the Panel on the Nonprofit Sector The Foundation Chief Development Officer is compensated by a related organization which uses a market based compensation program utilizing several independent third party compensation market surveys to establish pay ranges for the position The related organization then establishes the individual rate of pay within the range based on relevant experience, skills and competencies The rate offered to the Chief Development Officer at the time of hire was determined through discussion between the Regional CEO, Regional Director of HR and the Administrative Director of HR The ranges and rate of pay are reviewed on an annual basis by Regional HR
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Public disclosure of governing documents, conflict of interest policy and 990 filings are made available to the public upon written request The consolidated financial statements are available on our public Internet site www2.providence.org All governing policies including the conflict of interest policy, as well as 990 filings are available to employees on the Intranet site
Form 990, Part XI, line 9	Net Asset Transfers 53,297
FORM 990, PART XII, LINE 2C - AUDIT & COMPLIANCE	The Providence Health & Services Audit and Compliance Committee assists the Board of Directors with the oversight of the integrity of the financial statements and reporting, the audit process and the internal financial controls and policies, compliance with ethical, legal and regulatory standards and requirements, the independence, qualifications and performance of the internal and external auditors, and informs the Board of Directors of critical risk areas and recommended mitigation
FORM 990, PART I, LINE 5 & PART V, LINE 2A - EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION	The employees working at the Foundation are paid by Providence Health & Services - Washington Therefore, no W-2s are issued by the reporting organization
FORM 990, PART VII - TREASURER COMPENSATION	The Board Treasurer is compensated by a related organization for her services provided to that related organization and not services provided to the reporting Foundation
