Scholarship Foundation Application
2013-2014

FOR THE STUDENT: DESCRIPTION OF APPLICATION COMPONENTS

Dear Student,

Thank you for your interest in applying for a DaVita scholarship. DaVita Children's Foundation and the K.T. Family Foundation award scholarships to children and grandchildren of DaVita teammates.

Scholarships are awarded to students who demonstrate outstanding leadership, community involvement or academic performance. Strength in any one of these three categories may be the winning ticket, so you should apply even if you feel qualified in only one of the categories.

November 13, 2013 is the deadline for submitting all components, but don't wait until the last minute! It can take weeks to get your academic record and letter of recommendation letter.

Here are the components you'll need to get or write and provide to your parent or grandparent to complete the application:

- Academic record
  - Transcript or report card for the full 2012-2013 academic year. Need not be an official transcript.
- About Me (up to one page)
  - This is your opportunity to show your creativity! What would you like the trustees to know and consider?
  - Suggestions for topics to cover include things that are NOT included in your other application components, such as: activities, projects, opinions, achievements, personal experiences, a personal writing, goals, interests, hobbies.
- Letter of Recommendation
  - Contact someone you have known for years. Consider coaches, religious or scout leaders, friends of your family, and teachers (preferably not a family member).
  - Give him/her a copy of the DaVita Scholarship Foundations Request for Letter of Recommendation (below).
  - Ask that he/she get the letter to you a couple weeks before the November 13, 2013 submission deadline. You may want to make a note to yourself to follow up with the author with reminders.
- Community Involvement Responses and Essays
  - You will need to write one response about your community involvement (if any) and either 2 essays (if you are entering 6th-11th grade) or 1 essay (if you are entering 12th grade or college). The topics are different depending which grade you are in, so please review the topics below carefully to be sure you answer the right ones.
  - Limit each response to one separate page, and type your responses in black with the exception of the 12th grade and college essay.
  - At the top of each page, include your name, grade, and the topic you are writing about.

Scholarship Foundation Application
2013-2014

Community Involvement: Please respond to instructions for your grade:

6th-7th grade:

- Briefly describe your community service and how often you participate. Then, briefly expand what it is about this community service that you could share with other potential volunteers to get them involved or interested in helping.

8th-11th grade:

- Make a list of all your community service experiences. Show how often or how many hours you have helped. Then, write one small paragraph about something that surprised you or that was a new learning.

12th grade or college:

- Considering your favorite community service experience, please write about how your assumptions or stereotypes were challenged by either the other volunteers or the people you helped.

Essays: Please follow instructions for your grade:

6-7th grade: (up to one page for each answer)

- If you had your own TV network, what programs/shows would you put on it? Share at least two distinct ideas and why they are important.
- Where do you want to live when you are grown up and on your own and why?

8-9th grade: (up to one page for each answer)

- Write an essay about your good and bad habits. Write how they help you and/or how you may overcome.
- If you were a teacher or police officer (choose one or the other) what would you do with that authority and why.

10-11th grade: (up to one page for each answer)

- What gives you hope for humanity with the things you see from day to day?
- If you had a conversation with someone from history, who would it be and what specifically would you discuss and why.

12th grade and college: (up to two pages answering this one question)

- What do you think is the best formula for success? Be certain to share how your traits fit into this formula.

DaVita Scholarship Foundations
Request for Letter of Recommendation

Dear ____________________,

This is to request that you write a letter of recommendation for me in support of my application for a DaVita Scholarship Foundation grant award.

Instructions:

1. Please write a one-page letter describing my unique qualities with very specific examples that have come from your interactions or experiences with me.
2. Include the following at the bottom of the page:
   a) My full name
   b) How you know me; and how long you have known me
   c) Your full name, title (if appropriate), email address and a phone number for the Scholarship Foundation to contact you
3. Send the completed letter to me (in electronic form) to include with my application. The deadline for submission of the complete application, including this letter, is November 13, 2013.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Scholarship Foundations@davita.com or Director Kay Kargul 815 546 0845, kay.kargul@davita.com.

Thank you!

DaVita's two scholarship foundations were created so we could give back to our teammates, their families and local communities. The DaVita Children's Foundation is for college age and 12th grade students. The K.T. Family Foundation is for students in 6-11th grade. Student applications are evaluated based on leadership, community involvement, academics and their submitted application. Awards range from $1,000-$3,000.
