Return Reference	Explanation
schedule D, Part XII, line 2d	Change in valuation of interest in net assets of charitable foundation $156,842 Change in swap value $870,539 schedule d, part v, line 4	Temporarily restricted net assets are used to differentiate resources, the use of which is restricted by donors or grantors to a specific time period or purpose, from resources on which no restrictions have been placed or that arise from the general operations of the company. Temporarily restricted gifts, grants, bequests, and investment income are recorded as additions to temporarily restricted net assets in the period received, unless the donor-imposed restrictions are met in the same reporting period, in which case the income is reported in unrestricted net assets. Temporarily restricted net assets include a wellness campaign and caring fund, as well as the net assets of the charitable foundation. Permanently restricted net assets consist of amounts held in perpetuity or for terms designated by donors. Permanently restricted net assets include building, resident care, educational and chaplaincy endowments and are included in the net assets of the charitable foundation. Income earned on permanently restricted net assets was available to fund employee scholarships, facility improvements, chaplain support services, and to subsidize resident care.
