1. Third Party Actions. The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, including all appeals (other than an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a member, trustee, officer, employee, agent of or volunteer of the corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, decrees, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

2. Rights After Successful Defense. To the extent that a member, trustee, officer, employee, agent or volunteer has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 1, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

3. Other Determination of Rights. Except in a situation governed by Section 2, any indemnification under Section 1 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the member, trustee, officer, employee, agent or volunteer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1. Such determination shall be made (a) by a majority vote of Trustees acting at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of Trustees who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding is present; (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable (or even if obtainable), and a majority of disinterested Trustees so directs, by independent legal counsel (compensated by the corporation) in a written opinion; (c) by the members; or (d) by the court in which the action, suit or proceeding was brought.

4. Advances of Expenses. Expenses of each person indemnified hereunder incurred in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding (including all appeals), or threat thereof, may be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Trustees, whether a disinterested quorum exists or not, upon (a) receipt of (i) written affirmation by or on behalf of such person of his good faith belief that the standard of conduct permitting indemnification has been met and (ii) a written undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation, and (b) a determination by the Board of Trustees that the facts known to the Board would not preclude indemnity.

5. Nonexclusiveness; Heirs. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled as a matter of law or under the Articles, these Regulations, any agreement, vote of members or disinterested Trustees, any insurance purchased by the corporation, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a member, trustee, officer, employee, agent or volunteer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

6. Purchase of Insurance. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a member, trustee, officer, employee, agent or volunteer of the corporation, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article or Ohio law.
