Schedule D (Form 990) 2013

Part XIII Supplemental Information (continued)Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

The agency files Federal and Indiana income tax returns as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal revenue Code and does not report any unrelated business income or other income taxes. The agency is not considered to be a private foundation.

The agency's Federal and Indiana income tax returns for 2009 and later are subject to examination by the IRS and state of Indiana, generally for three years after they were filed. The agency recognizes tax benefits only to the extent the agency believes it is "more likely than not" that its tax positions would be sustained upon examination. There were no tax positions considered less than 50% likely of sustainability.

There were no income tax penalties or interest incurred in 2013 or 2012.

Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring Use of Grants Funds in U.S.

United Way only provides Community Action Fund allocation grants to human service agencies that have successfully been certified by our board as meeting standards of efficiency, effectiveness, and governance. The amounts of these grants are based on a separate application in which the agency describes past results and anticipated outcomes. Formal re-certification and re-allocation processes are conducted triennially (and alternate so agencies participate in one process every 18 months), and agencies submit financial, administrative, and programmatic documentation annually. We also evaluate the outcomes of any other projects (for example, those funded through grants we've received) via periodic reports, participation in project meetings, and as appropriate, on-site visits.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

All Board members must complete a conflict of interest form each year and submit it to the organization. The conflict of interest form would disclose any conflicts that may be present which then could be explored to determine the extent of the conflict.

So far, there have been no conflicts to report except for board member also serving as uncompensated board member of an agency receiving allocation. Member abstains from any vote relating to that agency.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Review & Approval Process - Officers & Key Employees

Every year a systematic review of salaries for all employees is conducted.

Comparisons are made to local, regional and national norms

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Other Organization Documents Publicly Available

We make our Articles of Incorporation, IRS Letter, Code of Ethics, and Form 990

UNITED WAY OF MONROE COUNTY #35-0985959

Form 990, Schedule O Program Service Accomplishments

United Way of Monroe County works with member agencies and a network of other community partners to provide comprehensive and collaborative solutions that help local residents improve their lives. We have served Monroe County since 1936, and became a United Fund/Way in 1956. We are a certified member of United Way Worldwide.

By focusing on the building blocks of a better life – Education, Earnings & Essentials — we create and support solutions to the most pressing issues in our community.

Specifically, we work to meet these priorities:

In 2013, United Way invested $1,235,557 in support of 24 certified member agencies, other exempt organizations, and United Way initiatives. Below are a few highlights of our efforts:

We Partner in Initiatives that Achieve Results

EDUCATION:

- The Monroe Smart Start Birth-to-Five Coalition continues to increase kindergarten readiness, support our youngest citizens, and empower parents and other caregivers. United Way partners with the Community Foundation of Bloomington and Monroe County to support and manage this coalition.
- More than 40 copies of the 'B is for Bloomington' ABC book were distributed to families at educational outreach events.
- We partner with IU Health Riley Physicians for a wellness-check based book distribution program. Each family receives a free age-appropriate book and a packet of information on ways to build early literacy and school readiness skills. In 2013, 4,356 books were distributed to children.

- Working with local early childhood education and health care providers, we bring United Way's Born Learning into childcare centers, nonprofit agencies, and pediatricians' offices. Born Learning encourages parents, grandparents, and caregivers to turn everyday tasks into learning experiences
- With IU Health Bloomington, we brought Kindergarten Countdown camp to at-risk pre-school students, increasing kids' readiness to start school.
- United Way, with additional funding from Duke Energy, launched Real Men Read in Owen County in August 2013. RMR brings male mentors into kindergarten classrooms to read a book each month with the goal of encouraging all children, particularly boys, to see reading as something that men value. During the first year, we distributed 985 books to 197 kindergarten students.
- United Way and the Chamber of Commerce convene the High School Plus coalition together with the schools, Prosecutor's Office, and other community partners to ensure every students will graduate school 'plus' have a viable plan for the future. The Coalition holds summits, publishes an e-newsletter, and is developing an online roadmap. These efforts, along with United Way's sponsorship of Check & Connect training, have contributed to a marked increase in the local graduation rate."
- We provide support for the Monroe County Youth Council, which brings young people together to create and administer youth-led projects, discuss public policy issues affecting youth, and serve as advisors to local organizations. In 2013, youth members and sponsors including United Way organized Global Youth Service Day for 230 high school students to do community improvement projects.

EARNINGS:

- The Financial Stability Alliance (FSA) continues to bring financial resources and education to a four-county area. The monthly e-Newsletter highlights financial stability events, resources, news, funding, and training opportunities in Brown, Greene, Monroe, and Owen counties.
- The FSA website (www.FinancialStabilityAlliance.org) offers a community calendar of financial events, current financial stability news, and topical podcasts and materials. The FSA Resource Guide, published in Fall 2013, highlights local organizations that help people find employment, locate free tax preparation, open and maintain bank accounts, build financial education, access services for persons with disabilities, and locate affordable and safe
- United Way, the Monroe County Public Library, and our Financial Stability Alliance held week-long Money Smart Weeks in spring and fall 2013, coordinating 11 financial education events that attracted over 124 participants. New events included an award-winning personal finance expert, a homeownership workshop, an interview and resume workshop, and a financial fun day
- Bank on Bloomington helped area residents, even those with troubled banking histories, open bank accounts, access financial education, and avoid payday loans and check-cashing fees. Five financial institutions currently participate in the program serving approximately 200 clients.
- Bank on Bloomington continues to offer the free, interactive "Get on the Path to Financial Success" workshop, which helps participants learn to manage a checking account, develop and maintain a budget, and identify and work towards financial goals.
- The Free Community Tax Service program brought together nearly 200 volunteers to assist local residents file 2,930 federal returns at 10 VITA sites and sites managed by AARP. Clients report using those saved funds (including over $850,000 in tax preparation fees and increased Earning Income Tax Credits) to pay for food, clothing, bills, rent, and to put towards savings. In partnership with the IRS and others, the FCTS helped low-income people in Monroe and Owen counties.

ESSENTIALS:

- United Way plays a key role in the Community Organizations Active in Disaster for Monroe County, which helps our community be prepared for and recover from natural disasters.
- We chair the Emergency Food and Shelter Board, a group of government, faith, and nonprofit leaders, to allocate federal funds that help low-income residents with food, rent, and utility costs

- Our staff provides technical assistance for Stamp Out Hunger, the nation's largest single food drive, which collected 87,483 pounds in our area.
- United Way provides support for the Monroe and Owen County "211 Infolink" service. In 2013, 2-1-1 specialists responded to 5,172 inquiries and made 7,836 referrals to community resources. Most callers were seeking help with housing and utilities assistance, income support, and health care.
- Monroe and Owen county households saved $31,612 in prescription drug costs (an average of 34%) with 1,923 claims through the FamilyWize discount prescription drug card distributed by United Way at agencies and pharmacies.
- We work with management, union, and state and local officials to assist workers who have become displaced from their jobs.
- United Way is collaborating with the YMCA of Monroe County, the City Parks and Recreation Department, the County Health Department, and others to promote ACHIEVE, a community-wide wellness initiative dedicated to making the healthy choice the easy choice.
- With support from United Way, the Housing Network developed a 10-year plan to end homelessness in our region.
- United Way serves on the local Affordable Care Act Enrollment Committee and provided funding so 2 Navigators could become state certified and assist at non-profit agencies.

STRENGTHENING NON-PROFITS:

- We have full accreditation from United Way Worldwide, meeting or exceeding all membership standards. In the past several years, we earned the Chamber workforce award, a statewide communications award, the Chamber family-friendly workplace award, a Midwest staff excellence award, and were recognized by United Way Worldwide as one of ten national finalists for our work.
- We bring critical funding into our community by providing important information to local, state and federal officials.
- With the City of Bloomington, Community Foundation, and SPEA, we sponsor the Nonprofit Alliance of Monroe County, which offers trainings, networking, and outreach opportunities to help strengthen the operations of all nonprofit organizations and prepare future professionals.
- Leaders of the UW member agencies meet monthly to share updates, discuss experience, and develop partnerships to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of their work.
- In collaboration with the Monroe County Public Library, we sponsored free access to a national grant search service for local agencies. We also assisted in the Library's development of Nonprofit Central, which provides resources and referrals for nonprofit professionals and volunteers.
