Statement of Reasonable Cause and
Request to Waive Late Filing Penalty

This charitable corporation is managed by uncompensated volunteer officers. The organization has recently changed tax preparers. Due to inadvertent oversight, this return was not entered into the preparer's software and the initial filing deadline inadvertently overlooked.

This corporation has always filed timely returns in the past and steps have put in place to insure that the oversight will not reoccur in the future. The normally calculated late penalty would be very significant in relation to the tax that is paid by the corporation and would detract from the corporation's charitable purposes. Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that any penalty be waived.
