The Martinez Foundation

35-2335890

Form 990, Part I, The most critical need right now concerning education in Washington concerns teacher diversity. The Martinez Foundation believes that a student's zip code should not determine the quality of education that student receives. Our mission: To prepare and support diverse and highly-qualified teachers who will raise expectations, accelerate learning and close the achievement gap by granting scholarships and promoting innovative social justice curriculum. The Martinez Foundation seeks to close the academic achievement gap by improving teacher diversity and the retention of teachers of color in Washington State. The Martinez Foundation is the only state wide organization whose focus is to recruit, support and retain teachers of color in their profession.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11. The Treasurer of The Martinez Foundation reviews the form 990. A copy of the informational return is provided to the governing body prior to filing with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c. Written and signed conflict of interest policy are in place when officers, directors, trustees and key employees initially begin their term with the Foundation. If a conflict exists, the interested person must disclose all material facts to the Directors of the Governing body, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: The organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements are available upon request.
