Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b. - The Foundation Form 990 was prepared by its Accountant and Executive Director. A copy of the complete Form 990 was e-mailed to every Foundation Board Member as a complete PDF document. Foundation Board Members were asked to review the entire form and to notify the Executive Director via e-mail of any questions or concerns within one week, after which time the 990 was filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c. - The Foundation regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with its conflict of interest policy by considering any real or potential conflicts prior to any voting among the board in official board meetings or committee meetings. Members are asked if there are any conflicts if it is not known based on previous disclosure documentation. An additional conflict document is used with the grants committee prior to recommending bi-annual grants to community organizations.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a/b. - The compensation of the Foundation's Executive Director is set by the Board of Directors at the direction of the Executive Committee. The Board President, as chairman of the Executive Committee, consults a national Salary

Study/Survey provided each year by the Council on Foundations, a membership organization serving over 700 Community Foundations. Data in the report consist of median and mean salary figures for Executive Directors (and other foundation staff positions) based on Foundation asset size. Consideration of typical nonprofit executive director salary in the County in which the foundation serves is also considered. Discussion of the Executive Director's salary occurs around the time of a performance review and is documented in meeting minutes. This same procedure occurs for other key employees in the organization, with the executive director doing the majority of due diligence and the board ultimately approving all salaries.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19. - Yes, the Foundation makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public. All of these documents are available upon request to anyone at anytime. The Foundation's website mentions the availability of these documents in the business office and the Foundation's annual report.
