Part III: Line 2 Significant program service changes during the Year - Last year we had just begun to provide our mental health providers with online training and annual certification for the CANS assessment tool. We hired a company to help design a large database to track all the users of the CANS and their training and certification status. To relieve the cost burden on our providers, they now can subscribe to the website/training/certification at a very reasonable cost to cover the expense of maintaining the database. The expense and revenue for this is listed under Part III Line 4d. This will be an ongoing program service offering.

Part III: Line 4d. Other Program Sevices. All have Code: 624100. Expenses = $114,986 Revenues = $223,704.

A) CANS online training and annual certification fee: (Expenses: $75,828) (Revenue: $27,589)

Users of the CANS assessment tool provided free to providers have to be certified and tested annually to use the tool. The website is a training website to help alleviate the need for travel expenses. Users pay a low fee ($10/user) annually to support the maintenance on the website. Expenses were high this year due to the need to design the website and provide proper tracking for providers.

B) State of Virginia DHS: (Expenses: $16,732) (Revenues: $22,000).

Dr. John Lyons performed live training on the CANS for a statewide initiative to use the CANS in the child welfare area of DHS.

C) Various users from the State of Maine, State of Texas, California, the Casey Family Services Agencies, and many small social service agencies all over the United States use the services of Dr. John Lyons to train their agencies live and through the website. Other services related to child welfare and juvenile justice through the State of Indiana, Michigan, and Illinois are also part of this miscellaneous section. (Expenses: $ 22,426) (Revenues $117,115)

Part VI: Section B - Line 11b The officers of the Foundation review the 990 Form prior to submission to the IRS and is available to anyone to view upon request. Currently our organization is waiting for a decision on our re-application exempt status due to nor filing annual tax reporting. We currently have changed our oversight to ensure we file timley reporting.

Part VI: Section B - Line 19. The Foundation has applied for re-exemption after we lost our status and have been waiting for over a year for the review. As soon as we hear from our IRS reviewer we will create a plan to ensure that our policies and financial reporting will be made available to the public on request or through our website

Part IX: Line 24: Other Expenses - the other expense line has been itemized in line 24a-24e.
