"Unusual Grant" of $404,096 not listed in Part II, Line 5 because it was a bequest of securities from the estate of a deceased person who did not participate in the organization's governance or make major contributions prior to the bequest. See Schedule M for details about this bequest as a contribution that exceeds $5,000. As an organization with more than a 35-year history, UPEC broadly solicits support from the general public and other public entitites. UPEC continues to have a governing body representative of the general public, overseeing and conducting a mission that is in the broad public interest, and providing services on a continuing basis open to public participation. As a membership organization, UPEC has dues that make it accessible to the general public ($20 for regular memberships; $15 for senior or student memberships). The organization widely publicizes it activities, the openness of its governance meetings, its desire for new members, and the opportuntities for citizens to work together through the organization in the broad common interest.

The $66 amount that was reported on Part II, Line 5 was the amount above 2% of Part II, Line 11 (total support during five year period) from a $1,500 grant from a private family revocable trust to support one of UPEC's programs (Celebrate the UP).
