Patriots and Paws helps our Veterans and their families with furniture and small necessities needed.

The animals will help provide a form of companionship/therapy for the Active Military and their families against post-traumatic stress.

We have a warehouse which are collecting items for the nonprofit.

Our future plans include a kennel for the animals we rescue. We will also provide returning Active Military and their families with information and resources they can use to become successful in returning home and re-start their lives back in the civilian world.

In 2011, 2012 and 2013, Home Depot donated $8000 value of furniture from four different locations each month. We give the Veterans and their families first priority of selecting the furniture. And we try our best to listen to the needs and wants from our Veterans.
