Return Reference	Explanation
SCHEUDLE D, PART X, LINE 2	ORGANIZATION'S LIABILITY FOR UNCERTAIN TAX POSITIONS UNDER ASC 740-10 The Center and its related corporations qualify as tax-exempt organizations under Sections 501(c)(2), 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the consolidated financial statements. MCFI recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority. Management has concluded that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition in the consolidated financial statements. The Center and its related corporations file income tax returns in the United States federal jurisdiction. Tax years open to examination by tax authorities under the federal statute of limitations for the Center are calendar years 2010 through 2013 and under the state statute of limitations are calendar years 2009 through 2013. Certain inactive related corporations have not filed returns for earlier years, meaning the statute of limitations has not started and remains open for these years. Additionally, the statute remains open for CFED for the periods in which it filed Form 990-N. All other corporations have made proper filings with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the Wisconsin Department of Revenue within the last three years ended December 31, 2013. MCFI recognizes, if necessary, interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in the provision for income taxes. There were no interest or penalties related to income taxes that have been accrued or recognized as of and for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	Form 990 Review Process NHS utilizes an independent accounting firm to complete the Form 990 and related schedules. Following completion, they are reviewed by the controller. The drafts are then reviewed by the audit committee prior to submission to the IRS. The full board is provided a copy of the Form 990 prior to filing.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Conflict of Interest Policy Monitoring & Enforcement Annually all directors and officers complete and sign a statement that provides information regarding their interests and those of their family members that could give rise to conflicts The signed statements are kept on file by the organization's executive assistant The organization's management makes determinations of whether a conflict exists and the members of the governing body review actual conflicts Any person with a conflict is prohibited from participating in the governing body's deliberations and decisions in the transaction

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a & 15b	Process for Determining Compensation NHS is a partner and affiliate of MCFI, which assists in managing the organization. These organizations periodically hire an independent consulting firm to perform a study of the compensation of the chief executive officer and certain other employees based on their job descriptions. The consulting firm conducts market research and determines a fair compensation range for each individual based on a competitive peer group. In between these periodic independent studies, the human resource director determines appropriate compensation ranges for the chief executive officer and certain other employees by reviewing the Form 990 of similar organizations and other market data. As new compensation reports are issued, the compensation ranges for these individuals are presented to, discussed, and approved by the executive committee of the governing body.
