Return Reference	Explanation
ASC 740 FOOTNOTE	The Academy and ARTrust are generally exempt from federal and state income taxes under the provisions of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, however, the net income from certain activities of the Academy may be subject to income tax as unrelated business income. During 2013 and 2012, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the consolidated statement of activities. The Organization must recognize the tax benefit associated with tax positions taken for tax return purposes when it is more likely than not the position will be sustained. The Organization does not believe there are any material uncertain tax positions and, accordingly, it did not recognize any liability for unrecognized tax benefits. For the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, there were no interest or penalties recorded or included in the financial statements.
Part V, Line 4	Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations requiring in perpetuity that the principal be invested and that only income be expended. Revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets, unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met during the same year are reported in the unrestricted net asset classification. Donor contributions are received for general operating purposes and to support specific programs. Contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized as revenues in the period the pledge is received. Conditional promises to give are not recognized until they become unconditional, that is, when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met.
