2013

Organization's Primary exempt purpose: partner with indigenous Christian workers in the developing world by providing funding, training, or tools to enhance effectiveness of their work.

Number of Clients served: Partnerships or working relationships have been established with up to 16 individuals or leaders of missions or institutions.

Funding of programs or provision of tools benefit thousands served by the national workers. For example, children's homes served house up to 200. Schools being assisted serve up to 6000 children. Pastors or workers serving under our partners number in the hundreds for whom we sometimes provide salary supplements, bicycles or other means of transportation, audio/visual tools, literature for distribution, personal reference libraries, training, etc. Funds are sent to provide scholarships for children and college or seminary students. Students served by library development number in the hundreds.

Haiti: Purchases and gifts in kind sent including school and office supplies, clothing, agricultural equipment, tools and equipment for vocational-technical training, clinic supplies, computer equipment and supplies and materials for the churches. Supplemental funding is provided for support of mission workers, clinic workers and schoolteachers.

Ghana: Ongoing development of the seminary library serving about 40 full time and about 100 part time students. Funds used for the shipping of books, purchase of new books, salary supplements, facility development, audio/visual and library equipment, special events, and to meet emergency needs (primarily medical) at the campus. Dollar amount may not include all costs of wire transfers, communication, or handling of gifts in kind.

Bethel Mission at KGF India

Funds are used to assist with expenses of three children's homes housing 100 children, care of widows, training programs, and special events.

Jehovah Shammah Children's Home at Narsapur, India

Funds are used to aid with repairs and maintenance of the facility, and to provide regular supplemental support for care of 35 children. Funds are also provided on a regular basis to assist with the outreach and training programs directed by the JSC Home director and his associates.

During 2013 we issued six informational newsletters and sent out a number of additional letters to the donor base.

Non-measurable achievements: Long term results of exposing American friends to the field partners through vision trips, speaking engagements, and individual conversations. Long term results of relationships established and of the networking and introductions that take place.

Long term results of funding education, care of widows and orphans, vocational training for self support, the impact of preaching and teaching on worldview and lifestyle for greater productivity, healthier living, participation in assisting others, etc.

New and used books and other learning materials are being distributed to 13 Bible Schools, Seminaries or other training programs.
