Children's Health Care Foundation ("The Foundation") supports the mission of Children's Health Care d b a Children's Hospitals and Clinics ("Children's"), by obtaining financial resources that are leveraged to champion the special needs of children and their families and to improve children's health by providing high-quality, family centered pediatric services. The Foundation is the fundraising arm for Children's, which formed in 1924, and is one of the largest children's health care organization in the U S , with 383 staffed beds at our two hospital campuses in St. Paul and Minneapolis. See Schedule O. An independent, not-for-profit health care system, Children's provides care through over 13,051 inpatient visits and more than 237,000 emergency room and other outpatient visits each year. The three largest services that the Foundation provides are to fund capital expenses, research and annual expenses for programs. These funds are transferred to Children's throughout the year and provide needed support to champion the special health needs of children. Programs: Annual operations support for programs support expert interdisciplinary teams of physicians, nurses, and health care professionals able to address the most complex and difficult pediatric medical problems. A majority of program support is provided to non-reimbursable services that are essential in the healing process for children and families.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	The intended use of the Foundation's endowments is to support the programs at Children's Health Care. There are also two endowment funds that are held and administered by US Bank, an unrelated organization, which are also used to support the programs at Children's Health Care. Refer to Part III, Line 4 for a description of the programs of Children's Health Care which are supported by the Foundation.
Part X, Line 2	The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has determined that Children's and its subsidiaries are exempt organizations as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Children's believes that it continues to meet the requirements of the IRC to sustain its tax-exempt status. There are no federal income tax expenses, penalties, or interest recognized in the consolidated statements of operations and no unrecognized tax benefits for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Part I, Line 2	During calendar year 2013, grants were made to Children's Health Care ("Children's") for support of programs, research and capital. Since these grants were made to Children's, a related organization of the Foundation, employees of the Foundation were able to verify the use of the monies contributed. Also, occasionally the Foundation grants monies to other tax-exempt organizations conducting programs and/or research that will ultimately benefit those served by Children's and affiliates.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a	The Foundation's sole member, Children's Health Care, is authorized under the Foundation's bylaws to elect directors of the Foundation, after approval by the board of directors of the Foundation

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b	The Foundation's sole member, Children's Health Care, Inc , maintains a number of "reserved powers" including but not limited to election of directors, approval of annual budgets, approval of amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The senior management of Children's Health Care, the parent of the Foundation, reviews the draft Form 990 with the Audit and Compliance Committee of the governing body of the Foundation and Children's Health Care, the parent of the Foundation, prior to the filing of the Form. This review includes an overview of the Form and discussions related to key sections. Copies of the final Form 990 are made available to members of the committee and all the Foundation's directors prior to the Form being filed. The Audit and Compliance Committee has been delegated the authority to oversee the completion and filing of the Form 990 by the full Foundation Board, and the committee reports the results of its review and approval to the full board at a regularly scheduled board meeting.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Management of Children's Health Care, the parent of the Foundation, ensures that conflict of interest disclosure forms are completed by all members of the governing body and board committees at least annually. Forms are completed at the beginning of the year, and directors and committee members are instructed to provide additional disclosures if necessary during the course of the year. The Governance Committee of the governing body of Children's Health Care, along with senior management (CEO and General Counsel) of Children's Health Care, review all disclosures provided by governing board members. The results of this review and any concerns, limitations, etc. are reported by the Governance Committee to the full board. If conflicts are identified, the Governance Committee and management work to ensure that directors do not participate in discussion or voting on the affected matter.
