Part X Line 2 FOOTNOTES IN FINANCIAL STATEMENTS Summary of Significant Accounting

Policies In accordance with the Income Taxes Topic of the FASB ASC, the Company evaluates uncertain tax benefits arising from tax positions taken or expected to be taken based on the likelihood of being sustained upon examination by applicable tax authorities. If the Company determines that a tax position is more likely than not of being sustained, it recognizes the largest amount of the arising benefit that is greater than 50% of being recognized upon the settlement in the financial statements. Any tax positions taken or expected to be taken that do not pass the more likely than not test, the Company establishes reserves offsetting the benefits related to such positions. Interest and penalties if any, are included in the current period provision for income taxes in the Company's statements of activities and are included as a current liability in the statement of financial position. Effective January 1, 2009, the company adopted

"Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" under the Income Taxes Topic of the FASB ASC

Under this topic, the Company recognizes any uncertain tax benefit if such benefits are a result of a tax position that is more likely than not sustainable upon examination by Federal and State tax authorities. When an uncertain benefit is determined to be more likely than not sustained, the Company values the position, for financial purposes, of the largest amount of the tax benefit that is more than 50% likely of being realized upon resolution of the benefit. For any tax positions taken that do not meet the more likely than not criteria, the Company establishes a tax reserve for 100% of the position taken. Adoption of "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" did not have an impact on the Company's financial position. For the year ended December 31, 2013, no significant amounts of unrecognized tax benefits existed nor does the Company anticipate any significant changes in unrecognized tax benefits to occur within the next twelve months, other than normal tax settlements.
