The Organization is an exempt organization for Federal income tax purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and classified as a public charity. As such, it is exempt from Federal and state income taxes.

The Organization follows a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. For the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, the Organization has no material uncertain tax positions to be accounted for in the financial statements under these rules. The Organization recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense.

As of December 31, 2013, the Organization's Federal and state tax returns generally remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the date which the returns were filed.
