| Pt I Line 32b    | The only third party used in relation to noncash contributions is the nationally-known brokerage firm that sells contributed publicly-traded securities. We have a policy to sell them immediately to avoid the risk of the value declining. The relationship with the individual broker within the firm that handles the transactions is of a business-nature only. |
| Line 31          | We have not received this type of contribution to date. However, if one is offered in the future, a group comprised of the executive director, selected board members, and perhaps an outside consultant would be gathered to determine the appropriateness of accepting such a contribution.                                                                        |

Part III – Statement of Program Accomplishments

- 1 Residential Services – The Women's Safe House (TWSH) Residential Services Program provided safe shelter and support services for 242 women and their 249 dependent children who were escaping violence in their own homes. We provided 16,371 nights of safety for these 491 women and children. Roughly 82% of the participants in the program left with a Personal Safety Plan and 85% of the residents indicated, via survey, that their knowledge about the issues of domestic violence has increased due to support groups, community presentations, and case management sessions. The onsite Life Coach, in concert with case management, solidifies the woman-defined advocacy model by helping the women to identify barriers and challenges and then to design better options. With 3 or more weekly support groups on site, women are able to access a multitude of counsel and advocacy. The Women's Safe House continues to develop collaborations with organizations such as the Redevelopment Opportunities for Women Multi-lingual Access Program (MAP), Better Family Life, the International Institute, the Family Resource Center and the Community Wellness Project to comprehensively address the particular needs of survivors of domestic abuse. The Residential Program served 24,094 meals and snacks last year. We have strengthened the program evaluation component to effectively measure program impact and outcomes through both quantitative and qualitative indicators.

The Aftercare Program is the only shelter program in the State of Missouri that offers a safety net post shelter with one year of advocacy, emergency financial assistance, case management and support groups. The AfterCare Program's Banking on Women Initiative provides three components aimed at financial empowerment-the Courage Fund which provides financial assistance to alleviate homelessness, Bank-up to assist domestic violence survivors build checking and savings accounts and the Micro-lending Program- a collaborative with the National Council of Jewish Women to provide loans to domestic violence survivors. The Aftercare Program served 134 women and children in 2013.

Expenses - $ 753,089

- 2 Crisis Hotline – TWSH operates a 24-hour crisis intervention hotline staffed 365 days a year. The Hotline serves as the primary intake for shelter residents and provides advocacy for women in crisis or those at-risk of domestic violence. In 2013, 2,755 hotline calls were answered with compassion and care by trained staff and volunteers. Immediate advocacy and support along with information and appropriate referrals were provided for each woman upon her first call for help. The Crisis Line also provides support, advocacy, and compassion to victims of abuse who simply need to talk and seek information and referrals for community resources.

Expenses - $ 128,918

- 3 Children's Program – The Children's Program is designed to meet the needs of infants, children and youth to age 18 who have witnessed and sometimes experienced violence in their homes. The Children's Program provides a comforting and nurturing environment where children can learn alternatives to violent behavior improve their self-esteem and learn positive ways of expressing themselves. With a designated children's case manager liaison, some 249 children and youth benefited from child-centered services at TWSH in 2013. We continued to strengthen our focus on children and youth interventions through a residential support program—Primary Prevention for Children and Youth Exposed to Domestic Violence. This early intervention and prevention piece features activities such as bystander intervention, teen dating violence strategies and bullying, including cyber bullying to help young people detect the signs of violence on the front-end-before they become primary victims. There are weekly support groups, field trips, holiday parties and age-appropriate play.

- 4 Volunteers Program – Volunteers make a difference at The Women's Safe House everyday. Volunteer efforts include serving on the Board of Directors, organizing fundraising and special events, organizing clothing and school supply drives, picking up donations, answering crisis calls, providing child care, working in the computer lab, assisting through clerical support or completing one-day projects such as painting residential rooms or helping with the grounds. Volunteers are recruited through public speaking and outreach at schools and universities, churches, civic groups, business and corporate organizations, healthcare, social welfare agencies and United Way. During 2013, volunteers provided 7,144 hours of support for our programs. Our volunteer program is certified through the United Way of Greater St. Louis.
