INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees of
NEW FOUND COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, INC.

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of New Found Community Foundation, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) which comprise the statement financial position as of December 31, 2013 and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the basis of accounting as stated in the notes to the financial statements. This includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based upon my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of New Found Community Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

New Found Community Foundation, Inc.
Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2013

Note 1: Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

New Found Community Foundation, Inc. (the Organization) is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to benefiting the residents of Seminole County, Georgia and its surrounding region by providing much needed funds in a manner that will increase the health and welfare of the community.

Support and Expenses. Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets. The Organization reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets, or if they are designated as support for future periods. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activity as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as unrestricted support.

The Organization reports gifts of goods and equipment as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the Organization reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

Expenses are recorded when incurred in accordance with the accrual basis of accounting.

Cash and Cash Equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash held in checking and money market accounts and certificate of deposit with maturities of less than 90 days except if those instruments are used to temporarily invest endowment funds until appropriate investments are identified.

Investments. Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are measured at fair value in the financial statement of financial position. Investment income or loss (including gains and losses on investments, interest, and dividends) is included in the statement of activities as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless the income or loss is restricted by donor or law.

Concentration of Credit and Market Risk. Financial instruments that potentially expose the Organization to concentrations of credit and market risk consist primarily of cash equivalents and investments. Cash equivalents are maintained at high-quality financial institutions and credit exposure is limited at any one institution. The Organization has not experienced any losses on its cash equivalents as all deposits are covered by FDIC insurance. The Organization's investments do not represent significant concentrations of market risk inasmuch as the Organization's investment portfolio is adequately diversified among issuers, industries, and geographic regions. The market portfolio is however, not insured or guaranteed.

Income Taxes. The Organization is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation whose revenue is derived from contributions and is not subject to federal or state income tax.

Note 2: Related Organization

The financial statements include the assets, liabilities, income and expenses of Southwest Georgia Properties, LLC as this entity was created to assist the Organization with its exempt purpose.
