Return Reference	Explanation
X 2	The organization assesses its tax positions in accordance with accounting for uncertainties in income taxes as prescribed by the accounting standards codification, which provides guidance for financial statement recognition and measurement of uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return for open tax years generally a period of three years from the later of each returns due date or the date filed that remain subject to examination by the organizations major tax jurisdictions. The organization assesses its tax positions and determines whether it has any material unrecognized liabilities for uncertain tax positions. The organization records these liabilities to the extent it deems them more likely than not to be incurred. Interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions, if any, would be classified as a component of income tax expense. The organization believes that it does not have any significant uncertain tax positions requiring recognition or measurement in the accompanying combined financial statements.
