Article I

Purpose

The purpose of these conflict of interest procedures is to protect this tax-exempt foundation's (the "Foundation") interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer, director or trustee of the Foundation. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace the governing documents of the Foundation and any state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations, and any such state or federal laws, including but not limited to Sections 501(c)(3), 4941, 4943, 4944, 4945, and 4958 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall prevail.

Article II

Definitions

1. Interested Person

Any director, principal officer, trustee or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

2. Financial Interest

A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family.

- a. A significant ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Foundation has a transaction or arrangement,
- b. A compensation arrangement with the Foundation or with any entity or individual with which the Foundation has a transaction or arrangement, or
- c. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Foundation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III
Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an Interested Person shall disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors considering the proposed transaction or arrangement

2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the Interested Person, the Interested Person shall leave the directors' meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining directors shall decide if a conflict of interest exists

3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest

a. An Interested Person may make a presentation with respect to a transaction or arrangement involving a conflict of interest at a meeting of the directors, but after the presentation, the Interested Person shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the conflict of interest

b. The board of directors may, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement

c. After exercising any appropriate due diligence, the directors shall determine whether the Foundation can approve the transaction or arrangement in a manner consistent with their fiduciary duty under state and federal laws

d. If the directors can approve the transaction or arrangement in a manner consistent with fiduciary duties, they shall determine by vote whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Foundation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is reasonable in the existing circumstances. In conformity with the above determination, the directors shall decide whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement

a. Each new Interested Person shall review a copy of this policy and shall acknowledge in writing that he or she has done so

b. Each Interested Person shall annually complete a disclosure form identifying any relationships, positions or circumstances in which he or she is involved that could contribute to a Conflict of Interest. Any such information shall be regarded as confidential and shall be made available only to the President, the Executive Director (if any), and the committee appointed to address Conflicts of Interest (if any) except to the extent additional disclosure is necessary to implement this policy and the procedures under it.

c. This policy shall be reviewed annually by each member of the board of directors. Any changes to the policy shall be communicated immediately to all Interested Persons
