Part XVI-B Relationship of Activities to the Accomplishment of Exempt Purposes

Line No.	Explain below how each activity for which income is reported in column (e) of Part XVI-A contributed importantly to the accomplishment of the foundation's exempt purposes (other than by providing funds for such purposes) (See instructions)
1e	Registration fee income from Adventures in Learning classes sponsored for senior adults in the community made it possible to fulfill the educational purposes identified in Hillside Foundations's articles of incorporation.
3 & 4	The interest and dividend income derived from checking accounts and investment portfolio made it possible to fulfill the charitable purposes identified in the Foundations's articles of incorporation including scholarship grants to institutions for students in training as nurses, assistance to cancer patients and their families (through the Willamette Valley Cancer Center Foundation), capital improvements for Yamhill County Action Partnership (YCAP) enabling it to serve the community with its Food Bank and other services to elderly persons who need financial assistance.
11	The net income from the Foundations's Furniture Exchange program helped to make it possible for the Foundation to fulfill the charitable purposes identified in its articles of incorporation. All proceeds came from the sale of donated items.
