Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Credit Union is exempt, under IRC 501(c)(14), from federal and state income taxes. Certain products and services provided by select state chartered credit unions have been deemed by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), in technical advice memorandums (TAMs) released in 2007, to be unrelated to the specific entity's exempt purpose. As presented in the technical advice memorandums the net taxable income from these products and services would be subject to income taxes. Credit Unions have litigated against the IRS positions noted in the TAMs and have been successful in having courts declare in 2009 and 2010 that revenue from insurance products sold to members, helping them protect their financial wellbeing, qualifies as exempt purpose income, contrary to the IRS position in the TAMs. Revenue from providing investment services to members was also ruled to qualify as exempt purpose income. The taxing authorities have the ability to assess taxes, penalties and interest for any years for which no tax return was filed. In the opinion of management, any liability resulting from taxing authorities imposing income taxes on the net taxable income from the activities potentially deemed to be unrelated to the Credit Union's exempt purpose is not expected to have a material effect on the Credit Union's financial position or results of operations. The Credit Union evaluated its tax positions and determined no uncertain tax positions exist as of December 31, 2013 and 2012. The Credit Union's tax years 2010 and beyond are open for examination by federal and state taxing authorities. The Credit Union has filed tax returns for the tax years 2007 through 2011 for activities they have deemed taxable. The Credit Union paid Federal Income taxes of $77,683 and $91,846 for tax years 2007 and 2008, respectively. The Credit Union filed amended tax returns for 2007 and 2008 during 2011. The Credit Union's position is that they are due full refunds of Federal Income taxes for those two years, but the IRS is delaying any processing of such refunds, creating some uncertainty when or whether the refunds will be paid by the IRS. The Credit Union has not recorded any tax benefit that may result from filing the amended returns.
