Tom Skinner Campus Ministry: Our campus ministries equip students with key skills for morally excellent leadership. We host student leadership retreats, leadership excellence programs, and power lunches with professionals who model moral excellence in their lives and careers. The lunches demonstrate how faith is expressed in different professions such as law, politics, medicine and education. Noonday prayer gatherings where students pray for the power and presence of God to impact all areas of the University campus including the President and his administration, faculty, students and their families.
