Yearly in February we hold a Hamburger lunch fundraiser, the proceeds go to our scholarships. We ask the community/general public to purchase tickets to buy hamburgers. Also, around March we have a golf tournament in which we receive 70% of the profits and hold a raffle at the event from which we receive all of the profits. Finally in October we hold a "Harvest Ball", we generally honor someone very influential in the community and ask the community/general public to sponsor tables for the event as well as purchase tickets to the event. Our sources of support are the general public and the community. We do have a governing body consisting of a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Historian who are elected yearly by the Employee Volunteer.s.
