We hold a limited partnership interest in Energy Corporation of America which was left to us many years ago under the terms of a will. Before it became Energy Corporation, it was known as Eastern Energy and was in bankruptcy. In early 1994, we contacted Eastern to find if our interest had any sales value. A written response was received indicating an error on their part and checks totaling $10,976.00 were received, which covered income that had not been disbursed for a number of years. No information on valuation was received.
