balance at that time and are paid out the vested balance as a taxable event. After a total of six years participation and after attaining age 45, participants are 100% vested and are paid out their remaining balance as a taxable event. Vesting then reverts to a three-year rolling schedule until year 12. Thereafter, the annual contribution is paid out to the participant each year as a taxable event.

Option Plan Description

The Option Plan is a nonqualified retirement plan that was terminated in 2002. Under the Option Plan, certain executives were allowed to defer part of their taxable income into designated mutual funds that were treated as an option to be paid in the future to avoid current tax. The option deadline is generally termination of employment. When the option is exercised, the employee is taxed on the deferred amounts and any appreciation thereon. At December 31, 2013, there were five participants with balances remaining in the plan.

entity and does not report any amounts under its own EIN.

The organization falls under a master pay agent and does not file any payroll returns under its own EIN.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Explanation: Yes, annually the organization distributes the conflict of interest policy to all directors, officers, trustees, and key employees. The organization requires that each director, officer, trustee, and key employee acknowledge that they have read, understood, and will abide by the policy. Each director, officer, trustee, and key employee is required to complete and submit an annual conflict of interest disclosure. These disclosures are broad and require that the individual list any business relationships or personal relationships with other directors, officers, trustees, and key employees, as well as any relationships with competitors, or current or potential vendors or contractors. Disclosure statements are reviewed by senior management and any potential conflicts are discussed with governing body chairman to ensure that any member who may have a conflict discloses their potential conflict, and is dismissed from related discussions and recused from participation in applicable decisions.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Explanation: The compensation of all senior management positions is evaluated annually in light of each manager's job content, scope and complexity. Compensation levels for Vice Presidents and above are reviewed by an independent external consultant to ensure that remuneration is consistent with the organization's compensation philosophy and objectives and competitive with other large complex health systems. The independent compensation consultant maintains national benchmark compensation databases and surveys and also reviews Forms 990 of comparable healthcare systems to determine market levels of compensation. In addition, the Inova Health System's CEO's compensation is reviewed and approved annually by an independent governing Board.

The job requirements and complexity of all other management positions are evaluated annually using nationally recognized third party salary surveys to assure that the compensation for such positions is consistent with external market compensation comparisons. Salary ranges are developed for each management position classification to ensure that the compensation levels for these positions are consistent with the organization's compensation philosophy and objectives and with competitive market comparisons.
