Facts And Circumstances Test
Return Reference	Explanation
Facts and Circumstances Test	The Foundation receives the majority of their support from the general public. They solicit contributions from their affiliated membership organization throughout the year as dues are being collected. The membership organization went through a downsizing several years ago and the Foundation suffered as a result. Member donations to the Foundation have been consistent over the past few years and with increased focus on educating current members as well as new members, contributions are expected to increase in the future.
