O.J. STOUT SCHOLARSHIP FUND CRITERIA

The following criteria should be followed in awarding scholarships under this fund:

1. Applicants must be young men residing in Wood County or in adjacent West Virginia counties. Preference shall be given to students residing in Wood County.

2. Recipients must be selected primarily on the basis of need, but academic ability and potential should also be considered.

3. Preference should be given to students who are studying to become ministers at West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, West Virginia.

4. All recipients must be graduates of an accredited high school or have exhibited and ability, desire and willingness to pursue their education for a professional or business career.

5. All recipients must maintain at least a 2.0 or "C" grade point average in order to be eligible for additional loan or scholarship. Also, the recipient must maintain full-time status at the institution they attend.

6. The recipient will be responsible for providing the trustee with a copy of his grade report (including the student's full name and cumulative G.P.A.) after the completion of each semester. In addition, it is the duty of the recipient to advise the trustee of any changes he makes in his course of study or the University or College he is attending.

7. No award shall be automatically renewed. Each grant and/or loan will be made on an annual basis provided that the recipient meets the criteria and provides a complete application no later than March 31st each year.

8. Awards may be made to sophomores, juniors and seniors in college as well as to freshmen, even though they have not previously been recipients of grants and loans. Graduate students may be considered as well as undergraduate students as long as they meet the other requirements necessary to obtain a grant and/or loan.

9. All loan recipients shall sign a negotiable promissory note for an amount approved by the trustee. All promissory notes will bear interest at the rate of (3) three percent per annum commencing (5) five years after the recipient has discontinued his schooling. Terms for repayment of the loan will be outlined in the promissory note.

10. The committee established by the Trust shall meet and determine the recipients of the awards to the extent possible prior to awards day at area high schools so that grants and/or loans can be presented on those occasions if at all possible.

11. It should be emphasized that this fund is designed to assist worthy students and not to pay the full cost and expenses of their education.

12. Recipients of awards shall receive one-half (1/2) of the total amount awarded at the beginning of the fall semester and one-half (1/2) of the award at the beginning of the spring semester, assuming that the grade point average and other criteria have been met during the first semester.

13. It will be the responsibility of the recipient to keep his address and educational status current with the United Bank Trust Department as administrator of the scholarship. This responsibility continues until his note is paid in full.

Having read and understanding the requirements:

I accept the terms and conditions ________________________________

I reject the terms and conditions ________________________________
(Therefore, subject to forfeit the award).
