AGL Resources Private Foundation, Inc.
Guidelines for Grants

Our key areas of focus are:

Grants in these categories will be considered in the Q1.

- Education - With an emphasis in reading, math and science, this support includes public secondary schools (K - 12); public and private colleges and universities, and technical schools.
- Environmental Stewardship - We support projects such as, clean air, conservation, and green space.
- Organizational and Supplier Diversity - We support organizations that reflect the diversity of our workplace and the many communities we serve, and we partner with organizations that provide developmental opportunities and assistance to minority and women-owned businesses.

Grants in this category will be considered in the Q2.

- Community Enrichment - We direct our support to energy assistance programs; low-income, senior citizen programs; minority and women leadership programs; limited arts and culture events; and the United Way.

Grants in this category will be considered in the Q3.

- Energy Assistance - We support programs which primarily help low-income households and low-income senior citizens afford their natural gas energy consumption. These programs include weatherization projects and emergency energy assistance.

Note: The Foundation can consider grant requests only from those organizations classified as 501(c)(3), tax-exempt by the IRS. The Foundation does not contribute to individuals, religious organizations, or private K-12 schools.

Please confirm that your organization is located in one of our service territories, and mail your grant request to the appropriate location.

* Requests from organizations outside our service territories will not be considered*

If your organization is located within one of our service territories, and you would like to submit a request for a contribution, please include the information listed below in your proposal.

- A brief background of the organization (two pages or less) and its Board membership list.
- A legible and most recent copy of the organization's 501(c)(3) tax-exempt letter.
- A clear statement of the project for which funds are needed.
- The amount the organization requests for the project.
- Sources of other support for the project and current financial statement of the organization.
