All of the non-cash donations are food items or personal hygiene supplies. This is our major source of donations. Donations are received:

1) People drop off food items at our facility; 2) Two major food drives during the year, the Boy Scouts and the Postal Service collect lots of food during these drives and this organization receives a full share; 3) Some churches regularly collect food and bring it to us, others have periodic drives and also bring food to us; and 4) schools and other organizations or clubs periodically also do food drives. During the growing seasons we often receive fresh fruits and vegetables from the community. We also have people that regularly pickup bread and bakery products and bring them to us weekly. Value of the food products is determined by matching typical assortment of food received and pricing it periodically at local food markets. Bags of food are assembled for a balanced diet and is based upon the number of members in the family or other unit being fed. Almost all of the perishable items are purchased with available funds, mainly at Second Harvest Food Bank where we can make very reasonable purchases, especially meats. Meats are donated to Second Harvest by local stores such as Publix, Winn Dixie and Walmart. Meats upon reaching their sell by date are frozen and donated to the food bank which makes it available to member food charities such as ours. Items such as eggs and butter are purchased to add to the assortment. This way we maximize our available resources to provide the most to those in need.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b. Monthly reports of services provided are prepared by the Pantry Manager or Asst. Pantry Manager and filed with the Secretary for review and archiving. The monthly totals are added to the annual report of services provided. This makes up most of the data for services provided and allows tracking of food distributions. Individual registration and sign in cards are kept on site at the Pantry facility. The summarized reports are available to all trustees. This information along with the financial reports are used to prepare the annual 990 form and associated schedules. This is normally reviewed by the Treasurer and copies of the returns are made available to all trustees and a copy is kept at the food pantry office.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19. Copies of the tax filings are kept at the Food Pantry Office and are available upon request for review. Schedules that contain names and addresses of donors (if applicable) are not made available for public inspection. A copy of the governing documents is also available for review upon request. Year end statements would be available if requested. No conflict of interest policy has been adopted so no policy statement is available. This has never been an issue.
