Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Part I Line 2 - Describe in Part IV the organizations procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds in the United States.

The Ministry receives updated information from the directors or staff of those ministry organizations as to their ongoing activities and accomplishments in regard to those specific projects.

These updates are provided through their newsletters, web sites, and acknowledgement receipt letters. A record is kept and prior to the annual board meeting a Ministry Review is provided to the Board of Directors. This Ministry Review provides an in depth report of each U.S. ministry organization's projects, the details of their specific purposes, goals and accomplishments.

In addition the prior year's accomplishments also appears in this Ministry Review so to provide the growth, progress and impact of those respective projects. During the annual board meeting the Ministry Review is reviewed and the Board of Directors express their comments about specific projects. The Board of Directors then give their unanimous approval for the continuation of those grants for those projects and for any new projects that might arise in the coming year.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Part II, Line 1 Table, Column (a) Name and address of organization or government (Continued)

These inner city children are ministered to through the following ministry opportunities: 1. The Sidewalk Sunday School brings the message of Jesus Christ to these children in the inner city neighborhoods of New York City. 2. The Indoor Sunday School where each child is picked up by a school bus and attends the Sunday School Outreach where a Bible message is presented with music and skits and they are fed through the Food Voucher Program and then these children are given a gift before being transported home. 3. Weekly home visitations where each week a staff member visits the homes of these children and observe their needs. From this visitation food, school supplies and other needs are provided to these children and their families. This Sunday School Outreach Program provides an opportunity to reach not only the children but also their parents with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Section B. Policies

Line 11 b. Describe in Schedule O the process, if any, used by the organization to review this Form 990.

Prior to signing and filing with the IRS, a copy of Form 990 is provided to the Governing Board for their review. Only after their review and unanimous approval is the Form 990 signed and filed with the IRS. The copy of Schedule B that was provided to the Governing Board appeared without the donors names and addresses to protect the confidentiality of those donors.

Line 15. Did the process for determining compensation of the following persons include a review and approval by independent persons, comparability data, and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision?

Line 15 a. The organization's CEO, Executive Director, or top management official .

"Yes". The process for determining the compensation of the CEO included the research, analysis, review and deliberations conducted by independent members of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee used comparability data obtained from GuideStar, GuideStar Compensation Report, 11th Edition September 2011 for their research, analysis and review and also a number of other factors. At the conclusion of their work the Compensation Committee documented their analysis, considerations, methodology, deliberations, final conclusions and decision in a Compensation Report. Upon the Compensation Committee's unanimous acceptance and approval of this Report it then became a part of the Official Records of the Organization for the CEO's compensation. This comprehensive review and report was completed December 31, 2011. A semi-annual review was conducted by the Compensation Committee in June and December of 2013.
