Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box A, B, or C below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held one year or less are short-term. For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note. You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 1a, you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

☐ (B) Short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was not reported to the IRS

2013 Consolidated Form 1099

Copy B, For Recipient
Account Number: MV 28133 D5
Tax Identification Number: 61-6356354

Proceeds from Broker Transactions Details Reported on Form 1099-B (OMB No. 1545-0715)

Consistent with IRS guidance, transactions are grouped into section(s) based upon whether the security is covered or noncovered, and whether the term is short or long. Transactions for which the term cannot be determined are grouped in a separate section. As a result, the substitute Form 1099-B could have up to five separate sections, each with a heading identifying which securities are included and how to report the transactions on Form 8949. When available, basis information will be displayed in sections where basis is not required to be reported to the IRS. A security is a "covered security" and subject to basis reporting requirements if it is acquired on or after its corresponding effective date. For stock in a corporation, the effective date is January 1, 2011. For stock in a mutual fund the effective date is January 1, 2012. UBS is not required to report basis to the IRS for any securities acquired before 2011. IRS regulations now require that brokers report short sales for the year in which the short sale is closed. The possible application of the "Constructive Sale" provisions (Sec. 1259) for short-against-the box transactions is not required and thus not reflected here. Clients may wish to discuss the potential application of this provision with their tax advisors.

The cost basis of the oldest security lot (first-in, first-out or FIFO method of accounting) is assigned to a sale to calculate Gain/Loss unless you identified a specific lot (a "versus purchase" or "VSP" order) when you placed your sell order. 2013 Gain/Loss for transactions with trade dates through 12/31/13 has been incorporated into this statement. The net gain or loss for each transaction is calculated based on the sales amount less cost basis with any wash sale loss disallowed. Although we apply wash sale rules to covered lots of identical securities, there are other circumstances to be considered that may result in or negate wash sales. Gain or loss is not calculated on the sale or redemption of certain Structured Products and certain grantor trusts with collectible or foreign currency as it may be ordinary, and not capital, gain or loss. These gains or losses will not be included on the gain or loss subtotal and total amounts where applicable. Symbol (2) will be printed to the right of the gain or loss subtotal and total amounts. Net gain or loss is not reported to the IRS.

In Box 2a gross proceeds are reported less commissions and option premiums. Sale amounts with "+" symbol indicate where an option premium adjustment has been made. If Box 2b is checked, a loss based on the amount reported in Box 2a is not allowed.

Beginning in 2012, basis for both covered and noncovered securities have been adjusted for all capital changes. Prior to 2012, basis may not have been adjusted for noncovered tax lots. The Original Cost Basis column is only populated for transactions of securities that have had their basis reduced due to premium amortization or increased due to OID accretion. Cost basis for coupon tax-exempt municipal securities (including securities subject to AMT) has been adjusted for mandatory amortization of bond premium. The OID amount reported on your Form 1099-OID is not adjusted for market discount, amortized acquisition premium, or bond premium. Therefore, the amortization and accretion adjustments used here may not be consistent with the Form 1099-OID amounts reported to the IRS because the reporting requirements are different.

Please check with your tax advisor and/or read the tax-related disclosure materials associated with those products.

Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box D, E, or F below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part II Long-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held more than one year are long term. For short-term transactions, see page 1.

Note. You may aggregate all long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 8a, you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box D, E, or F below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your long-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 2, for each applicable box. If you have more long-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.
