Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b	ECU maintains escrow accounts on the loans in the mortgage portfolio for payment of property taxes and homeowner's insurance. The accounts are treated as other deposit accounts and earn interest at the regular share account rate as long as the escrow balance is positive. Amounts are deposited monthly and payments are made as necessary during the year. Escrows are "trued" once a year to prevent excess or correct short-falls.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	Management evaluated the Credit Union and Subsidiary's tax positions and concluded that the Credit Union and Subsidiary had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the consolidated financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance. The credit union files Forms 990 and 990-T.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 6	Eastman Credit union is a member owned non-profit tax exempt corporation in which each member owns an equal share
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7a	At the annual meeting of the members, Eastman Credit Union's members elect individuals from the credit union's membership to serve on the board of directors for three year terms. In the event there is a vacancy on the board, the directors may appoint an interim member to serve out the term of the vacant board position
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7b	Eastman Credit Union's members have the right to vote, on a per capita basis, on dissolution of the credit union, merger with another credit union, expulsion of a member, conversion from a state to a federally chartered credit union, conversion to another type of financial institution, or to overrule a decision of the credit union's Board of Directors
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	Eastman Credit Union's Form 990 is reviewed by ECU's CEO, CFO, Chief Counsel, VP of Human Resources, and Controller. A complete copy of this Form 990 was provided to all members of the ECU Board of Directors before filing the form
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Prior to employment, all employees and officers of Eastman Credit Union are required to disclose all potential conflicts of interest and must agree to update the disclosure in the event any conflicts arise subsequent to employment. Prior to serving on the Board of Directors, all prospective board members are required to disclose all potential conflicts of interest. All members of the Board of Directors are also required to complete an updated disclosure at least annually. It is the responsibility of the president or chair of the Board of Directors to determine the resolution of all actual or potential conflicts of interest. Members of the Board of Directors do not participate in the deliberations or voting on matters where an actual or apparent conflict of interest exists
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Eastman Credit Union annually participates in executive compensation surveys of reputable compensation consultants by providing current base and total compensation information of the ECU officers. The consulting groups focus on comparative compensation information within the credit union industry. As a result of participation, ECU receives data compilation reports and analyses from the studies conducted by these compensation experts. Ranking and comparative information for each relevant position is provided in both studies. ECU studies and utilizes peer group information relative to ECU's asset size as benchmark data. Eastman Credit Union works with consultants from each respective consulting firm to obtain special data cuts, clarifying information, and advice regarding matching of ECU positions to benchmark jobs, industry average increase in executive compensation, and other information related to executive base and total compensation factors. The Vice President of Human Resources provides a recap of compensation study information in a presentation format during a meeting of the Compensation Committee (subcommittee of the Board of Directors, chaired by the board chair). The compensation committee reviews the data and discusses and presents questions related to the information provided. When necessary, the VP of Human Resources will follow up with compensation consultants for additional information to be presented for discussion and consideration. The Compensation Committee approves an average salary increase for the CEO's direct reports and authorizes the CEO to award individual salary increases accordingly. Final awards are documented and signed by both the CEO and the chair of the Compensation Committee. This document is submitted to payroll via the VP of Human Resources. The Compensation Committee meets in executive session to further consider compensation data for the CEO. Final award is documented and signed as approved by the chair of the Compensation Committee. This document is submitted to payroll via the VP of Human Resources. Original documents are maintained on file in the Human Resources Department.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	The governing documents and other records and policies of ECU are not generally made available to the public. ECU members are entitled to inspect certain records of the credit union after complying with the requirements of state law. Financial information is posted on ECU's website and published in the annual report.
Form 990, Part XI, Line 9	Changes in net assets and fund balances totaling $2,776,555 consist of the following: Unrealized holding gains (losses) on investments classified as available for sale ($887,168), net defined benefit pension plan cost adjustments $2,824,604, net postretirement benefit plan cost adjustments $320,676, and post retirement investment unrealized gain (loss) $518,443.
