| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | The conflict of interest policy is signed annually by the members of the Board and reviewed by the Financial committee Chair and Chairman of the Board. If there is an apparent conflict of interest it is investigated immediately by the head of the Finance committee. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15  | The review procedures for the CEO are: the CFO is asked to provide comparable salaries from the most recent edition of Compensation & Benefits Survey from the Center for Nonprofit Management. This information is reviewed periodically by the Board Chair and is available upon request for other Board members. The Board may also ask for information from other similar nonprofits whose CEO/ED performs similar duties, i.e. fund development, grant writing, etc. At a regular Board meeting the Chair solicited input from Board members regarding the CEO performance and the Board established the CEO's compensation for the year. The Chair and CEO may wish to establish goals for the following year at that time or at another meeting, for example, in conjunction with the annual budget.                                                                |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19  | Financial statement is made available on our website and through Guidestar.org. Governing documents, including conflict of interest policy, are made available at our main office to anyone who wants to review.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
