End Time Prophecy, World Age Doctrine, World Government in Camden, Arkansas

Our world is approaching the end times, and our nonprofit ministry is here to spread awareness of the impending cleansing. Based in Camden, Arkansas, we want to educate you on the end time prophecy that involves an emerging world government. It is all presented in the World Age Doctrine.

The Great Commission

We spread awareness of the World Age Doctrine. Realize that the world as a whole and Israelites have a huge impact on the past, present, and future. By understanding your current position in time, you give yourself the chance to personally accept Jesus Christ, thus completing the Great Commission.

Two Final Destinations

Each person has two final destinations: one with God, and one separate from God. God has planned a particular scenario for the Israelites in which he educated and provided service for them. God will complete his covenant with the Israelites. As such, the Israelites will experience a time of purification.

The world is nearing a time of tremendous global stress due to an emerging world government. In the future, there will be times of great ecological and geological tragedies. God will rescue those who have accepted Christ, protecting them from the impending turmoil. These humans will survive into the next era, known as Millennium.

Supported by History

Archaeological records support the World Age Doctrine. As we speed towards this inevitable future, we want to educate unsaved people on the necessity of salvation. Only through a born-again experience do we enter into a rebirth of our spirit and inherit God's eternal kingdom.

Our Mission

Commission Air's goal is to make people aware, but more importantly, we want to aid you and other people in Israel, the United States, and other parts of the world. We offer air transportation services from your current location to your biblical origin.

It's a protected space that will allow you to survive through three and a half years as tribulations befall the rest of the planet. Most of the population will go under. We will put the infrastructure together to provide transportation to the Israelites' sacred location in Sinai, Egypt, where they can fulfill their covenant with God.

You have free will to decide whether to accept God into your heart or to shut God out. God designed it to be this way, so that in eternity he will be with people who want to be with him.
