ARTICLE I

OFFICES AND CORPORATE SEAL

1. Principal Office. The principal office of the corporation shall be its known place of business in Tucson, Arizona.

2. Other Offices. The corporation also may maintain offices at such other place or places, either within or without the State of Arizona, as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors, and the business of the corporation may be transacted at such other offices with the same effect as that conducted at the principal office.

3. Corporate Seal. A corporate seal shall not be requisite to the validity of any instrument executed by or on behalf of the corporation, but one may be used if the officers or the board of directors so decide.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSES

1. Education and Charitable. The purposes for which the corporation is formed are those set forth in its Articles of Incorporation, initially being to conduct the business of making grants to educational and charitable organizations which promote higher education, education of hearing-impaired children and adults, and cancer research.

2. Dividends Prohibited. The corporation is not formed for pecuniary or financial gain, and no part of the assets, income, or profit of the corporation is distributable to, or will inure to the benefit of, its directors or officers or other private individuals; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent the payment of reasonable compensation for services actually rendered by employees, officers or directors of the corporation and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection therewith.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

The corporation will not have members.

ARTICLE IV

DIRECTORS

1. Number and Term of Office. The board of directors shall consist of three (3) persons or such other number, but no more than nine (9) as may be designated from time to time by resolution of a majority of the entire board of directors. The initial board of directors named in the articles of incorporation shall hold office for life or until removed by the board of directors by a two-thirds vote of the directors.

2. Vacancies. Vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office, though not less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and the directors so chosen shall hold office for life, unless sooner displaced as provided in section 1 of this Article. If there are no directors in office, then an election of directors may be held in the manner provided by statute.

3. Powers. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors.

4. Place of Meetings. The board of directors of the corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either within or without the State of Arizona. Such may be held by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this section shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

5. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the board of directors shall be held during the first week of December or at such other date and time as shall be designated by the board of directors and stated in the notice of meeting. Notice to the current board of directors of each annual meeting shall be given by the secretary by mail, telephone or telegram and shall be given at least ten (10) days and not more than thirty (30) days prior to such meeting. At its annual meeting, the board of directors shall elect the officers of the corporation and may transact any other business which may properly come before it.

6. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the board.

7. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board may be called by the president or the secretary on ten (10) days' notice to each director, either personally, by mail, by telegram, or by telephone. Special meetings shall be called by the president or secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of any director. The time and place of each special meeting shall be determined by the president, but in the case of a meeting called upon the request of a director, the time of such meeting shall be no later than the expiration of a ten-day period following after the date of such request or such longer period as may be specified in the request.

8. Quorum. A majority of the membership of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum and the concurrence of a majority of those present shall be sufficient to conduct the business of the board, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute or by the articles of incorporation. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the board of directors, the directors then present may adjourn the meeting to another time or place, without a notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

9. Action without Meeting. Unless otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or these bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the board or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the board or committee.

10. Waiver of Notice. Attendance by a director at a meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Any director may waive notice of any annual, regular or special meeting of directors by executing a written notice of waiver either before or after the time of the meeting.

11. Compensation. The directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the board of directors but shall not receive compensation as directors or for attendance at meetings of the board of directors.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

1. Designation of Titles. The officers of the corporation shall be chosen by the board of directors and shall be a president, a secretary and a treasurer. The board of directors also may choose a chairman of the board, one or more vice presidents and one or more assistant secretaries and assistant treasurers. Any number of offices, except the offices of president and secretary, may be held by the same person, unless the articles of incorporation or these bylaws provide otherwise.

2. Appointment of Officers. The board of directors at each annual meeting shall elect a president, a secretary and a treasurer, each of whom shall serve at the pleasure of the board of directors. The board of directors at any time may appoint such other officers and agents as it shall deem necessary to hold office at the pleasure of the board of directors and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the board.

3. Salaries. The salaries of the officers shall be fixed from time to time by the board of directors, and no officer shall be prevented from receiving such salary by reason of the fact that he is also a director of the corporation.

4. Term. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualify in their stead. Any officer elected by the board of directors may be removed at any time by the board of directors. If the office of any officer becomes vacant for any reason, the vacancy shall be filled by the board of directors.

5. Chairman of the Board. The chairman of the board, if one shall have been appointed and be serving, shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him.

6. President. If a chairman of the board shall not have been appointed or, having been appointed, shall not be serving or be absent, the president shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors. He shall sign all deeds and conveyances, all contracts and agreements and all other instruments requiring execution on behalf of the corporation, and shall act as operating and directing head of the corporation, subject to policies established by the board of directors.

7. Vice President. There shall be as many vice presidents as shall be determined by the board of directors from time to time, and they shall perform such duties as from time to time may be assigned to them. Any one of the vice presidents, as authorized by the board, shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the president in case of the temporary absence of the president or in case of his temporary inability to act. In case of the permanent absence or inability of the president to act, the office of president shall be declared vacant by the board of directors and a successor chosen by the board.

8. Secretary. The secretary shall see that the minutes of all meetings of the board of directors and of any standing committees are kept. He shall be the custodian of the corporate seal and shall affix it to all proper instruments when deemed advisable by him. He shall give or cause to be given required notices of all meetings of the board of directors. He shall have charge of all books and records of the corporation, except the books of account, and in general shall perform all the duties incident to the office of secretary of a corporation and such other duties as may be assigned to him.

9. Treasurer. The treasurer shall have general custody of all the funds and securities of the corporation. He shall see to the deposit of the funds of the corporation in such bank or banks as the board of directors may designate. Regular books of account shall be kept under his direction and supervision, and he shall render financial statements to the president, and directors at proper times. The treasurer shall have charge of the preparation and filing of such reports, financial statements and returns as may be required by law. He shall give to the corporation such fidelity bond as may be required, and the premium therefor shall be paid by the corporation as an operating expense. He shall see that the corporation's properties are adequately insured against liability.

10. Assistant Secretaries. There may be such number of assistant secretaries as from time to time the board of directors may fix, and such persons shall perform such functions as from time to time may be assigned to them. No assistant secretary shall have the power or authority to collect, account for or pay over any tax imposed by any federal, state or city government.

11. Assistant Treasurers. There may be such number of assistant treasurers as from time to time the board of directors may fix, and such persons shall perform such functions as from time to time may be assigned to them. No assistant treasurer shall have the power or authority to collect, account for, or pay over any tax imposed by any federal, state or city government.

ARTICLE VI

COMMITTEES OF DIRECTORS

The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole board, designate one or more committees, to consist of two or more of the directors of the corporation. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution, and as otherwise restricted by law, shall have and may exercise the powers of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and may authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it; provided, however, that in the absence of disqualification of any member of such committee or committees, the member or members thereof present at any meeting not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the board of directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the board of directors.

ARTICLE VII

FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the corporation shall be January 1 through December 31 of the following year.

ARTICLE VIII

INDEMNITY

The corporation shall indemnify any person against expenses, including without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise, in all circumstances in which, and to the extent that, such indemnification is specifically permitted and provided for by the laws of the State of Arizona as then in effect. Any indemnification hereunder shall be made by the corporation only as authorized by the board of directors by a majority vote of the quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding, or if such quorum is not obtainable, as specifically permitted and provided for by the laws of the State of Arizona as then in effect.

ARTICLE IX

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Checks and Loans. All checks, demands for money or loans of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

2. Contracts. The board of directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.
