Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box A, B, or C below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part I Short-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held one year or less are short-term. For long-term transactions, see page 2.

Note. You may aggregate all short-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 1a; you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your short-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 1, for each applicable box. If you have more short-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box D, E, or F below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part II Long-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held more than one year are long term. For short-term transactions, see page 1.

Note. You may aggregate all long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS and for which no adjustments or codes are required. Enter the total directly on Schedule D, line 8a, you are not required to report these transactions on Form 8949 (see instructions).

You must check Box D, E, or F below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your long-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8949, page 2, for each applicable box. If you have more long-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

ROSENTHAL FOUNDATION

2013 ANNUAL STATEMENT SUMMARY

The following sections are provided to facilitate your review and the preparation of your tax return

The 2013 Proceeds from Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions section includes both sales of positions for "covered securities" and "noncovered securities." A covered security includes those with a purchase date within the following timeline: Equities acquired on or after January 1, 2011 and Mutual Funds acquired on or after January 1, 2012. Legislation requires reporting the gross proceeds of the sales of "covered" and "noncovered" securities and the adjusted cost basis for "covered securities." Any sale of a security that is considered a "noncovered security" will still be included in this section with the adjusted cost basis (where available)

In calculating gain (loss), unless otherwise noted, it was assumed that the oldest position was liquidated first, and that you have made an election to amortize the premium paid on the purchase of taxable bonds. Under the Cost Basis Reporting Regulations, brokers need not track wash sale activity for substantially identical securities, transactions across accounts, or between covered and non-covered securities. However, you as a taxpayer still have to track and report wash sales as you have in the past which would include all of the aforementioned transaction types. Securities distributed from a retirement account reflect the tax basis on the date of distribution. Other methods for calculating gain (loss) are available. The cost basis for most Original Issue Discount ("OID") obligations includes the accretion of OID. For purposes of allocating original purchase price to the components of an equity unit consisting of a purchase contract and a debt security subject to a remarketing event, we assumed that the fair market value of the debt security on purchase date was equal to its adjusted issue price. The difference between your original cost and the amount allocable to the debt component was allocated to the purchase contract. In making adjustments to the cost basis of the purchase contract, it was assumed that the unit holder included contract adjustment payments in income when received.

This is important tax information and is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if this income is taxable and the IRS determines that it has not been reported.
