This data is generally sourced from salary data provided by the Council on Foundations and specific comparables of similar foundations and nonprofit organizations obtained from sources such as Management Research Associates, the Non Profit Center and Guidestar.

The President/CEO provides a written self-evaluation to the Committee in advance of a meeting held to discuss the performance review. The Human Resources Committee will summarize the information in the review as well as utilize the comparable salary data to make a recommendation to the GMF Board for any changes in the President/CEO compensation.

The Board Chair, or his/her designee, must document the basis for determination of the President/CEO salary. The documentation should include the deliberations and final decision made by the Board and what comparable data was used for the decision. The Board Chair, or his/her designee, is responsible for assuring that proper compensation approval documentation is completed and recorded in the personnel file of the President/CEO. The Director of Human Resources will assist in this process.

A similar process of reviewing comparable data will be used for other positions. However, the President/CEO, CFO and Director of Human Resources will be conferring on any compensation changes for most other positions at the Foundation.
