To strengthen individuals and families affected by addiction, poverty and homelessness Bridges to Change is committed to stopping the revolving door of recidivism by stressing personal accountability while providing tools, support and services necessary to help our clients maintain self-sufficient lives in the community

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

The Organization provides alcohol and drug free transitional housing to men and women returning to the community from jail, prison or being homeless. There are currently 17 recovery transition houses and apartment complexes with a total capacity of approximately 200 beds. Mentors are provided for clients facing alcohol, drug recovery, parole and other issues. Mentors help offenders develop a clear understanding of criminal needs, risks, intervention, addiction and relapse issues. A residential program is provided to homeless men who are prepared to work or who are currently working but still living on the streets.

Amended Explanation	There were delays in closing our 2013 accounting records due to organizational changes. The 2013 990 was filed before the 2013 financial statement audit was completed in order to meet the 990 deadline. Our 2013 financial statement audit resulted in adjustments to our accounting records, requiring the 2013 990 be amended to reflect those changes.
