Gender Justice is a nonprofit organization based in the Upper Midwest which seeks to eliminate gender barriers through litigation, public policy advocacy, and education programs.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description*Description

stereotypes and promote equal opportunity. We seek to work with those who have the least access to justice and whose stories need to be told. Highlights in 2013 included work fighting discrimination against transgender workers and patients, protecting the workplace rights of pregnant and nursing mothers, combatting rape myths through civil suits against perpetrators, and confronting hidden bias that contributes to job segregation and the gender wage gap. Education Program: Gender Justice uses multiple channels to educate the public about why gender barriers persist and what we can do to eliminate them. Through trainings, public speaking, publications and social media, Gender Justice calls attention to the role that hidden biases play in discrimination, and the connections between the many faces of gender bias. Public Advocacy: In coalition with local and national partners, Gender Justice works toward improving local state and federal public policies to bring our society closer to one in which all persons can reach their full potential, regardless of their sex, gender identity or expression, or their sexual orientation. Gender Justice gives a voice to our constituents in the policy arena, and provides technical legal assistance to advocates and legislators. Assistance often includes identifying and analyzing policy options, drafting legislation, and providing testimony on proposed legislation.
