Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Certain products and services provided by select state chartered credit unions have been deemed by the Internal Revenue Service, in technical advice memorandums released in 2007, to be unrelated to the specific entity's exempt purpose. As presented in the technical advice memorandums the net taxable income from these products and services would be subject to income taxes. Credits unions have litigated against the Internal Revenue Service positions noted in the technical advice memorandums and have been successful in having courts declare in 2009 and 2010 that revenue from insurance products sold to members, helping them protect their financial wellbeing, qualifies as exempt purpose income, contrary to the IRS position in the technical advice memorandums. The Credit Union had no significant tax liability for the year ended December 31, 2013. In addition, the Credit Union evaluated its tax positions and determined no uncertain tax positions exist as of December 31, 2013.
