Part XV, Line 3
CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions were made to organizations exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, for the support of their own charitable activities. Unrestricted gifts were given to the following charities whose activities promote the preservation of natural resources, conduct research and educational programs on world over-population and family planning, promote amateur sports, and provide educational or medical services for distressed or underprivileged communities. Contributions were also made to support various religious and educational institutions.
