Citychurch has many ministries to children. During the fall and spring semesters, Citychurch has a weekly afterschool night. Children are met at or near their school. The program begins with a coloring page and ends with sack dinner to take home, and in between are activities, crafts, and games. During the summer months, children are brought to our park for Bible lessons, games, lunch, snacks, and crafts. Each week of the summer, different neighborhoods are targeted for the week long Bible club. Citychurch also fills the visible needs of the children that we minister to, including back to school needs. Citychurch also delivers custom packed Christmas boxes to all children and youth involved in our ministry. The boxes include a blanket, toys, hygiene items, socks, underwear, and candy. This year Citychurch facilitated the Camp Hope ministry, a free summer camp for children involved with Citychurch, and a free camp for pre-teens.

(Code) (Expenses $ 176,665) (Revenue $ 0)

Citychurch Academy is an early education center committed to a strong Biblical education. Students are given a tuition free Christian education. At Citychurch Academy, students receive a broad spectrum of fun and educational opportunities including music, art, physical education, and field trips. Citychurch Academy will give young minds a jump start to reading and continuing their educational journey.

The goal of the television and Internet ministry is to inspire others to reach out to the hungry and lost children of their own city. The documentary style programming offered on television program and streaming on the Internet shows how to help others in need. The message of the show is an outreach to people who cannot attend Citychurch because of geographic location, financial situation, or disability.
