Name of the organization

The Edith Buxbaum Foundation

Employer identification number

91-1094770

The Edith Buxbaum Foundation has been reporting on form 990 since 1979, when it was incorporated in Washington State (Dec 7, 1979)

This entity has never generated any income from fund raisers or the sale of any personal or real property, the sole sources of funds have been donations from board members and investment earnings. This entity has faithfully operated under the authority of Section 501(c)(3) since inception, and there have been a number of changes in the composition of the advising board members. However, throughout these 35 years, the foundation has consistently distributed awards to qualified recipients, and has reported those awards dutifully on every tax return. It should be noted that the foundation has never paid any officer or board member any remuneration for services rendered to the foundation. The only expenses paid by the foundation throughout these 35 years have been minimal administrative expenses, including secretarial fees, licensing fees, bond fees, insurance and tax preparation fees. The totals of these expenses do not amount to 5% of the overall fund balance in any year. The foundation's Articles of Incorporation include provisions for internal controls, which the foundation dutifully adheres to. These Articles also direct the rotation of board members and officers, and strictly outline the purposes and functions of the foundation, all of which are strictly followed. A copy of these Articles can be made available to the IRS upon request.
